

“Come As You Are” Advocacy Training for After-School Providers

Presented by: Wendy Shepherd, ALFAB Services

Ever feel like speaking up on behalf of after-school policies and didn't know how?
Have you wanted to call your Legislator but didn't know where to start or what to say?
Not everyone is comfortable with “advocacy” because they don't realize how easy and fun it can be!

This three hour training will arm you with the knowledge and the tools to identify critical issues in after-school, communicate with and educate stakeholders, and involve consumers in your advocacy efforts. You will also learn how grassroots work can help build a sustainable after-school field.

Wendy Shepherd has been a speaker/trainer since 1987. Her work has centered on advocacy, parent education, work/life balance, and stress management. Before Wendy was a trainer, she was a child care teacher and director.
